MEMORANDUM FOR: All Participants in Ginnie Mae Programs

FROM: Michael J. Frenz, Executive Vice President

SUBJECT: Introduction of e-Notification

Ginnie Mae is pleased to announce the launch of e-Notification, an internet-based system that will allow Ginnie Mae to make key information available electronically to issuers and document custodians. e-Notification is scheduled to go live on September 1, 2006, and is intended to significantly reduce the number of notices currently sent through faxes and mailings.

Active issuers and document custodians will be required to register at least one user on e-Notification, no later than July 15, 2006. Ginnie Mae strongly encourages issuers and document custodians to register more than one user for back-up purposes. As part of the registration process, issuers and document custodians will be given the option of providing Ginnie Mae with an email address so that they can be alerted when notifications have been posted to their designated e-Notification box. Choosing not to provide an email address does not relieve the issuer or document custodian of their responsibility to check their e-Notification box regularly. Additional information about e-Notification, as well as instructions for registration, will be available on Ginnie Mae's website at www.ginniemae.gov, under the "What's New" section, no later than May 12, 2006,

In order to achieve a seamless transition to e-Notification, Ginnie Mae will be using both the current method of notification and the new e-Notification for those functions indicated on the attached list during the month of August 2006. Beginning on September 1, 2006 and thereafter, the e-Notification method will be the only method of notification used for those functions on the attached list. Therefore, it is incumbent upon all active issuers and document custodians to become familiar with the new process during the month of August. Registration for e-Notification will begin on June 1, 2006, and continue through July 15, 2006. As additional functions are converted to e-Notification, you will be advised accordingly.

If you have any questions regarding this announcement, please contact your Account Executive in the Office of Mortgage-Backed Securities at (202) 708-1535.
