

U.S. - Japan Housing Finance and Capital Market Roundtable

Hosted by:
Ginnie Mae and Japan Housing Finance Agency (JHF)

Thursday, August 27, 2015

1:30 – 5:00 p.m.

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
Brooke-Mondale Auditorium A
451 7th Street SW, Washington D.C. 20410

The inaugural U.S.-Japan Housing Finance and Capital Market Roundtable will bring in housing finance experts in government, financial and banking sector firms and association leaders, congressional stakeholders and academia to share current policy effectiveness and challenges in the private capital markets.

Ginnie Mae President Theodore Tozer and Japan Housing Finance Agency President Toshio Kato will lead the presentations and discussions to assess:

- Progress and challenges for Japan and the U.S. on governmental policy and private investment
- Future outlook of housing finance and capital markets.

International mortgage finance and capital markets leaders including Morgan Stanley, CoreLogic, BlackRock, Wells Fargo, Quicken Loans, as well as government agencies and academic institutions will engage in active roundtable dialogues.

RSVP to attend today!

A reception will follow from 6:30-8:00 p.m. at the Residence of Japanese Ambassador to the U.S. Kenichiro Sasae (Invitation sent separately from the Embassy of Japan).

Questions?

Contact Alven Lam, Ginnie Mae Director of International Markets at 202-475-7870 or ginniemaecapitalmarkets@hud.gov.