Join us September 19-20 in Washington, DC!

Ginnie Mae's MBS outstanding is at $1.7 trillion, the highest in history. Our Issuer base has transformed dramatically, and government backed mortgages are the best hope for millions of would-be homeowners and renters to attain the American Dream.

The Summit is a one-of-a-kind experience that brings together every stakeholder in the mortgage industry.

It is your chance to network with other lenders, investors, document custodians, D.C.-based policy makers, members of Congress and staff, federal agencies, real estate trade groups and industry analysts. Educational sessions will also provide in-depth perspective on Ginnie Mae's business and programs from a variety of perspectives. We will examine the most pressing issues facing the industry today.

Look for more details soon, including a Summit agenda and how to register.

Hotel rooms at the Mayflower Hotel are limited, so don't wait.
